Concord July 7th
1873.

Dear Miss Chandler

Come up on Friday at farthest, if you cannot tomorrow, and spend Sunday with us.
As Louisa wishes to go to Gloucester sometime during next week and

Turn

I fear your visit would lose its chief charm
to yourself, were she absent the while.

These days are delightful, and help Good fellowship
in the country, specially in Concord.

Truly Yours.

A. Bronson Alcott

Miss Ellen A. Chandler.
